1 In Varadaraja Iyer and the matter having been ref^d to the Subordinate Judge at Bangalore the Public Prosecutor at Bangalore was engaged to defend the suit on behalf of Govt., and while sanctioning his fees of Rs. 83-6-0 the Jg. was asked to point out the source to the Compt. to make the payment.

2 As regards the expenses of defending the suit in the chief Court etc another refⁿ is to be expected.

3 In the meanwhile an amount of Rs. 389-2-10 including interest till the end of Jan^y 1915 payable to M. Varadaraja Iyer is sought to be sanctioned from the P.W. budget. It will be seen from the G.O. of 16.12.10. originally sanctioning the acq^y of the land that the cost of compensation was ordered to be met, as agreed to by the chf. Engr., from the P.W. budget. It is a question for consideration as to which whether the P.W. or the Edw budget should bear the present expenses and also the expenses yet to be paid.

Judgment.

Two lands of the Appellant were notified for acquisition on 10-5-11 for extending and serving as a recreation ground for the Holar Students' Home. They are Survey no: 99 garden land measuring one 1'-den and assessed at 4 Rs; and a building site adjoining it measuring 19 guntas, both situate within Holar Lower limits. The latter was purchased by the Plaintiff Appellant so far back as 1896 for 58 Rs: and on it he had laid the foundation and base-ment ^{of} for a bungalow which he did not complete. The Deputy Commissioner awarded 190 Rs for

for the cost of the foundation, 60 Rs for the garden land and held that the house site had no market value. He awarded in all 250 Rs and further failed to award 15 percent ^{of} ^{the} ^{on} ^{the} market value as required by ~~the~~ law apparently because as stated in para 6 of the written statement before the Sub-judge the claimant the when he appeared before the Deputy Commissioner on 29-4-11 orally agreed to receive the amount fixed by Panchayatdars and was therefore not entitled to a larger sum than the amount so fixed. The claimant was not satisfied with the award and

On a reference made to the District Court, the sub judge confirmed the award of the Deputy Commissioner adding however 15 per cent of the market value as he held that claimant was not estopped by his undertaking to be bound by the decision of the Panchayatdars. The claimant has appealed.

2. The plea of estoppel raised by the Deputy Commissioner was rightly rejected by the sub-judge. The reference to the Court is in the writing of Deputy Commissioner Mr. Eincanteswara Esq before whom claimant appeared on 29-4-11 when when he was under no legal com-pulsion to part with the land and para (4) of the reference runs as follows:— 'Mr V. Sengar himself had appeared in person on 29th April 1911 in response to a notice issued to him and had said he had no objection to the land and site being acquired on valuation as per provisions of the Land Acquisition Regulation.' In these cir-cumstances we are con-strained to express our surprise that a plea of estoppel was raised in defence to the claim.

3. As regards the market value of the land the appellant has not appealed against the valuation of the building materials as per exhibit II at 190 Rs which was awarded by the Deputy Commissioner and confirmed by the Sub-judge, and the only question is whether the house - site of 19 gunbas and garden measuring 1 Acre have been correctly valued by the Sub-judge. The Deputy Commissioner fixed the value of the garden land at 60 Rs at the same rate as was paid for lands immediately adjoining or either either side of it' and 'as for the house-side itself' he held that 'all, considered' it had no market value but was satisfied that the estimated value (190 Rs) of the building materials as per Exhibit 2, covered like as well as materials. The Sub-Judge on the other hand would attach no value to the garden-land apart from the house-site. His argument is as follows: 'The claimant never intended to use it as a garden. He had obtained it by Dhakhsat only to use it as a distal for

for the house which he in-tended to build but which he never built. So such it would attach no value to it apart from the house site.
It is only necessary to remark in this connection that the intended user of a land by the owner is no criterion of its market-value. In the para following the above extract the Subor-dinate Judge evidently considers that the sum of Rs. 1901- was awarded for the building materials alone and there is nothing in his judgment in the nature

of a finding in regard to the value of the house-^{side} but all the same he was able to find on the second issue 'that the amount awarded by the Kolar Deputy Commissioner was fair and reasonable' It is very much to be regretted the subordinate Judge wrote a judgment so unsatisfactory and so little helpful to this Court. So far as the evidence adduced by the parties goes we are of opinion that the evidence of claimants' 2nd and 3rd witnesses is reliable and may be accepted in fixing fixing the market value of the building site and garden land Second witness Lakshminarayana

-yana Avadhani deposed as follows:- I purchased a land from Suryanarayana Sastri under Exhibit A. The land is at a distance of 30 yards from the suit-land.
I purchased it for Rs. 50/- The land is in the Fort. It is surrounded by houses The building-site except the garden can be purchased for Rs 100/-.. It was a good site for building purposes.
The Fort-wall does not exist.
There are only two houses separating separating the land purchased under Exhibit-A from the land in question. Under Exhibit-A which is a registered document 408 Sq. yards were sold for Rs. 50/- and calculating on this basis the suit-site is worth Rs 300/- and the estimate of Rs 100/- is well under the mark and the witness evidently under-estimated its value, because 'a poor person like him would prefer to build a house within the Fort with houses all round.

The 2nd witness Surya-narayana Sastri executed Exhibit-

Exhibit A in favour of the second witness and he deposed as follows:-

'Exhibit A is the sale deed executed by me. I know the suit-land. It is separated from the land sold, by a house and a road. I have taken a hy--pothecation of gardens, close by the garden acquired. Magadann Sab has hypothecated his garden measuring 16 guntas to me for Rs. 80/- It is close to the garden now acquired. The garden now acquired is valued at Rs. 150/-.

The estimate of this witness is to a certain extent corroborated by para 4 of the written statement of the Deputy Commissioner

Copy applied for on the	Applicant told to appear on the	Applicant appeared on the	Copying stopped for want of copying sheets on the	Additional copying sheets supplied on the Commissioner in which it is assessed 3 acres and 11 guntas of land adjacent to the land belonging to the claimant were acquired for Rs. 400/-, giving about Rs. 125/- per acre. In these circumstances we award Rs 250/- for the house-site and the garden and raise the compensation to Rs 440/-

In modification of the decree of the Subordinate Judge there will be a decree in favour of the appellant for Rs. 506/-, Rs 440/- being the market-value and Rs 66/- being 15 per cent on such market value, together with interest at 6 per cent on Rs 256/- from 26th 26th Mar 1911 up to date of payment.

 In the circumstances of this case we consider the Deputy Commis-sioner should bear the costs of the Appellant in both the Courts as provided in Section 27 clause
 (2) of the Land Acquisition Regulation.
